Professional Studies Graduate Merit Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis to a limited number of newly admitted graduate students who demonstrate exceptional promise of achieving academic excellence.

The scholarship application deadline for fall semester is August 15; the deadline for the spring semester is January 15. Scholarship applicants must be fully admitted to the graduate program of their choice prior to these dates in order to receive an award.

To apply, please submit the following with this application:

- 1. Photo copies of all college or university transcripts. Reference to transcripts included in the admission application is not acceptable.
2. A typed, 3 page essay about your academic achievements and future goals. Please indicate whether you receive tuition assistance from any other sources (employer reimbursement, scholarships, grants, etc.) and the amount of assistance received.
3. A resumé of your academic and professional achievements.
4. In addition, you may, but are not required to, submit other relevant evidence of academic potential such as GRE, LSAT or GMAT scores; published articles or books; past awards for academic achievement.
Please note: your application may be strengthened by submitting letters of recommendation from faculty members.

Please submit all documents in a single packet to your academic advisor. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

I understand that if awarded a Graduate Merit Scholarship, I will be expected to maintain good academic standing (a minimum cumulative 3.0 GPA). Additionally, I will meet the conditions of the University of San Francisco tuition payment plan and provide tuition in the amount not covered by the Scholarship. I certify that the statements in this application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
